TRIBUTE TO REVEREND DR.
JULIUS RICHARD SCRUGGS

HON. PARKER GRIFFITH

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 27, 2009

Mr. GRIFFITH. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Reverend Dr. Julius Richard Scruggs of the First Missionary Baptist Church in Huntsville, Alabama. This year he celebrates his 50th pastoral anniversary and his 32nd anniversary with First Missionary Baptist. Dr. Scruggs is a wonderful asset to the community and all of North Alabama.

Rev. Dr. Julius Scruggs began his pastoral career at the age of 18 at Pine Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Harvest, Alabama. He has been at First Missionary Baptist Church since 1977 and welcomed more than 3,000 new members into the congregation during that time. Under his leadership, the church formed teams that have improved the community of North Huntsville through scholarship funds, health and recreation clinics, and jail ministries. Dr. Scruggs has also personally overseen multiple projects with Habitat for Humanity that have directly benefitted his area.

Rev. Dr. Scruggs' leadership has been undeniably advantageous for Missionary Baptist Church's growth and development. Because of his vision and enthusiasm, he is a perfect candidate for President of the National Baptist Convention. The convention is being held during the second week of September, and I am honored to declare my support for this remarkable gentleman from North Alabama.

Madam Speaker, I wish to express my extreme gratitude to Dr. Scruggs for his service to our community. As a former recipient of the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. award and as Vice President at Large of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Dr. Scruggs serves as an example of leadership for us all. The Tennessee Valley appreciates his invaluable service in the ministry for half a century and his dedication to First Missionary Baptist Church in Huntsville for more than three decades.

HONORING SERGEANT
CHRISTOPHER ENEY

HON. CHRIS VAN HOLLEN

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 27, 2009

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Sergeant Christopher Eney, a brave and dedicated U.S. Capitol Police Officer who was killed on the job 25 years ago this August.

Sergeant Eney, who was 37 years old, was a devoted husband and father. He was deeply committed to his work with the Capitol Police, to which he gave 12 years of faithful service. His fellow officers remember him as "a model officer, a leader, not a follower." At his memorial service, they recalled his quiet optimism, how Sergeant Eney could conjure a smile during his shifts in the House gallery at four in the morning. Sergeant Eney, they remembered, was always proud to serve.

In a training exercise in 1984, a fellow officer accidentally discharged his weapon, and Sergeant Eney was mortally wounded. He was the first Capitol Police Officer to die in the line of the duty.

Sergeant Eney's wife Vivian spoke at a ceremony for fallen officers some years later. "As far as I'm concerned," she said, "death doesn't make them a hero. What makes them a hero is the fact that they're walking out of the Academy, they're putting on a gun, they're wearing the badge. And in this day and age that takes a lot of courage."

Madam Speaker, I am honored to recognize the service and sacrifice of Christopher Eney and all of America's fallen heroes, and I ask my colleagues to join me in doing so.
